WELCOME TO VOL.2 OF PASSPORT PARK CITY

Take a hike or take a bike -- that's the Summer-Fall mantra here in Park City. Welcome to Vol. 2 of PASSPORT PARK CITY and our first Summer/Fall issue. The perfect weather this time of year lures visitors and locals alike to spend the day outdoors among the mountains and reservoirs.

Great music, food and art are also on tap all summer long with the Park City Institute Concert Series, the Food & Wine Classic and the Park City Kimball Arts Festival. On the last Friday of the month, Main Street is the place to be to visit the 20+ galleries who keep their doors open until 9:00PM for the "Gallery Stroll".

Shopping's a favorite Park City sport too! Check out the Main Street fashion, which features everything from Burns 1876 (they outfitted me for this photo) to the new Kühl store for the best outdoor lifestyle clothing. Fill your senses this Summer and Fall with a hike, mountain biking, dining, shopping and the arts. Bring your PASSPORT PARK CITY with you!

BILL WHITE RESTAURANT GROUP

FARM TO TABLE Our mission is to create a cooperative, community-based experiment by enhancing the entry corridor into Park City. We restored the 1938 Hixon Farm to preserve the historically significant structures. We use the facilities for cooking classes, food harvesting and a gathering place where people of all ages can experience traditional organic agriculture. We encourage the propagation of the plants and flowers on the property and areas surrounding us. With the construction of the pond, and addition of plants and shrubs, we want to provide a natural habitat for birds, water fowl and other animal species. Improving the Millennium Trail and the nearby hillside for residents and travelers will be a key focus along with the historic preservation of the property.

SIBYLLE SZAGGARS-REDFORD

SUMMER RAINFALL, AUG 4-SEPT 25

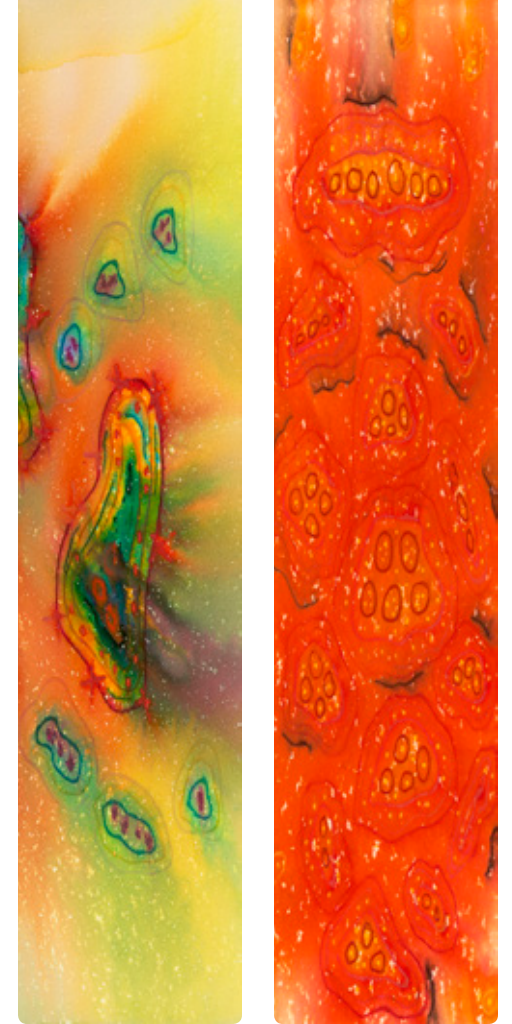

Sibylle Szaggars Redford is a German multimedia environmental artist who has dedicated her life's work to creating art informed by her spiritual connection to life, the land and the world by raising environmental awareness.

She has exhibited her work throughout England, Italy, France, Japan, Peru, Monaco and the United States, often collaborating with musicians and choreographers. In 2010, Redford began creating her Rainfall series, inviting actual rain showers to become her collaborator in art. Discover how she does this in her film Rain Painting, scored by Icelandic musician/composer David Thor Jonsson.

In 2013, with a new collaboration of musicians/composers Will Calhoun, Dave Eggar and Chuck Palmer, Redford created a site-specific The Way of the Rain performance in Miami, Florida, at the National Young Arts Foundation's Campus. In 2015, the Sundance Film Festival invited The Way of the Rain to be an Official Selection, performed at the Complex Performing Arts Center in Salt Lake City. On Aug. 4, 2016, excerpts from The Way of the Rain will be performed at the Kimball Art Center during its annual Gala Fundraising event, where Redford will exhibit new Rain Art from Aug. 4 to Sept. 25 at the Kimball Art Center.

Just as people reveal themselves only on special occasions for people they know and trust, so too does the Earth. These moments don't last long. Capturing them takes patience and diligence. The result is a photograph depicting nature as it has rarely been seen before. For 27 years, native Utahan Willie Holdman has been capturing the majesty of the Beehive State and the world. His local artwork enhances any space, contemporary or traditional, and his fresh eye keeps audiences engaged year-round.

WHITE PINE TOURING

Since the early 1970s, White Pine Touring has provided guiding services, equipment and apparel for novices and seasoned vets alike for exhilarating outdoor adventures. Summertime calls for climbs, hikes and bikes! Trek through Park City's mining history on foot or bike to see the old transportation systems that hauled silver ore in its heyday and learn how the skiing industry was born. Or venture on a guided bike tour and navigate through sage brush, conquer tricky switchbacks, and scale steep hills you never thought possible. Sign up for Rock Climbing School and learn to reach new heights safely and with confidence. White Pine Touring takes you into the outdoors!

PARK SILLY SUNDAY MARKET

The Park Silly Sunday Market is a nonprofit, eco-friendly, open-air market and street festival held on Park City's Historic Main Street every Sunday during the summer (June to September). This year, Park Silly will celebrate its 10th anniversary. Originally conceived as a funky street fair and gathering place for the community, the Silly Market has grown steadily and become more ambitious over the years. In 2015, Park Silly hosted over 188,000 visitors and expects to see even more people get silly this year. Park Silly's original mission still holds true: to grow and expand the inclusive experience of community, creating worldwide recognition for Park City as the place where local, national and international causes are brought to light and addressed in the spirit of celebration and connectedness.

Trout Bum 2 is the premier Park City fly shop & outfitter. We offer the best and most experienced Park City fly fishing guides, one of the biggest selections of flies in Utah, and fly fishing gear from the best brands. We have a full staff of guides that live and work on the world class Green River, Provo River, Weber River and other less explored creeks.

SILVER STAR

SKI & SPORT

Do you want to have FUN on your vacation? We sell FUN and try to keep it FUN! Come see us for all your summer-FUN wants and needs. We rent and sell mountain bikes, cruiser bikes, paddle boards and more. We'll even rent you our dogs! (OK, so that's a joke, but everything else is true!) If we don't have it, you don't need it. We specialize in mountain awesomeness and want you to experience it too!

BRING IN THIS BOOK to receive 20% off any summer rental, or use the promo code "Luxury." Some restrictions and blackouts apply.

SUNDANCE

MOUNTAIN RESORT

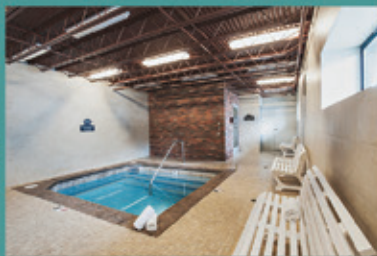

Founded in 1969 by Robert Redford, Sundance Mountain Resort is, as he says, “an area whose pledge is to people.” Rustic modern cottages and homes are discretely tucked into a mountainside setting beneath majestic Mount Timpanogos. The uniquely appointed style integrates with the mountain environment, including rough-hewn woods, warm tones and Native American accents. Most of Sundance’s beautifully designed accommodations are suites, providing kitchens, living areas, lofted ceilings and views of the surrounding natural landscape. Alternatively, Sundance also offers smaller, more standard rooms, each providing a unique Sundance experience. sundanceresort.com
