A CELEBRATION OF MATERIAL IN THREE DIMENSION BY THREE AMERICAN SCULPTORS

Shannon Fitzgerald, Executive Director states: "We are delighted to present three outstanding American sculptor's whose work powerfully explores materials and process in three different compelling ways to contemplate nature and the environment ranging from wind, earth, mountains, water, and horses. Nationally renowned artists Alice Aycock and Deborah Butterfield push boundaries in scale, human perception, and grace in aluminum, bronze, fiberglass, and found scrap metal that awe. In addition, Orlando and Aspen based artist Barbara Sorensen creates works in clay and aluminum that beautifully explore both the fragility and forces of our earthen elements." She continues: "This season is a celebration of women sculptors who have, for decades, significantly contributed to the still largely male dominated field, in monumental ways."

The Alice Aycock Grounds for Exhibitions Series runs from September 2016 - September 2017. Three American Sculptors: Alice Aycock, Deborah Butterfield & Barbara Sorensen runs from October 14, 2016 to January 8, 2017.

WEDDING BLING

When shopping for an engagement ring, Janice and Matina, the diamond experts at Be On Park, caution against marrying yourself (OK, pun intended) to one particular style thinking it's the only one for you. You might fall in love with something you didn't expect.

Be On Park's knowledgeable staff will guide you through the entire process — from understanding the 4 Cs (cut, color, clarity and carat) to familiarizing yourself with top designers to ultimately choosing that one stone that speaks to you. Trending right now are simplistic, classic looks not limited to a traditional solitaire. Come find yours!
