THE ALFOND INN

Just a short stroll from Park Avenue, the Alfond Inn is a boutique hotel blending warm hospitality with local flair. Owned by Rollins College, the hotel, with its philanthropic mission, supports the Alfond Scholars program. On view at the hotel is the Alfond Collection of Contemporary Art, part of the permanent collection of the Cornell Fine Arts Museum at Rollins College. Elegant guest rooms, luxury suites and stunning meeting and event spaces beckon, and Hamilton's Kitchen serves Floridian-inspired cuisine, including weekend brunch.

WELCOME TO VOL. 6 OF PASSPORT WINTER PARK

SPRINGTIME IN WINTER PARK is filled with exciting events and vibrant art exhibitions. From the annual Florida Film Festival in April to the Florida Prize in Contemporary Art in May, discover these events and more, along with boutique shopping and dining options, by flipping through the pages of this issue.

Our cover artist, Nick Cave, is an artist, educator, and foremost a messenger, working between the visual and performing arts through a wide range of mediums. Soundsuit is part of the Orlando Museum of Art's permanent collection. Rescue, on the back cover, incorporates ceramic dogs sitting on furniture within elaborate grottos or dreamlike dens. Thank you to Jack Shainman Gallery for access to Rescue. Visit nickcaveart.com or jackshainman.com to learn more.

Explore Winter Park and beyond, and bring your PASSPORT WINTER PARK to guide you!

ALBIN POLASEK MUSEUM & SCULPTURE GARDENS

The lakeside estate of internationally renowned sculptor Albin Polasek provides guests with an unforgettable three-part experience. The manicured gardens mingle representational sculptures with radiant flora. Docents guide guests through the artist's home and private chapel, an intimate setting with works by Polasek and other notable 20th-century artists. Rotating exhibitions greet guests in the gallery, featuring contemporary artists and historical collections. The museum also hosts special events as well as the Winter Park Paint Out, an annual plein air festival.

THE CAPEN HOUSE

Experience the newest addition to the Polasek grounds: the Capen-Showalter House. Built in 1885, this home originally sat on the opposite shore of Lake Osceola. After a historic relocation effort and careful restoration, this Victorian home is now available for museum programming, weddings, holiday parties, special events and various other celebrations. With its grand parlor, historic details and terrace overlooking the Polasek gardens and Lake Osceola, the Capen-Showalter House is an impressive feature of the Polasek Museum & Sculpture Gardens.

HOW TO INTERACT WITH ART

IN FIVE STEPS

By Ena Heller, Ph.D.
Bruce A. Beal Director
CORNELL FINE ARTS MUSEUM

The cliché “art is in the eye of the beholder” begs the question: If art means different things to different people, how should one navigate the process of seeing, understanding and appreciating art? Here are five easy steps to follow for a full experience:

- 1 CLOSE OBSERVATION → What do I see?
- 2 ANALYSIS → What do I think?
- 3 RESEARCH → How can I learn more?
- 4 INTERPRETATION → What might it mean?
- 5 CRITICAL ASSESSMENT & RESPONSE → How do I feel about it?

And remember, while there are many answers to these questions, there are no wrong answers.

CREATIVE COLLABORATION

AT FLYING HORSE EDITIONS

UCF's Flying Horse Editions is a unique combination of printmaking workshop, research center and playground studio for visual artists. Housed in the UCF's Center for Emerging Media in downtown Orlando, FHE attracts internationally respected artists seeking to push their artistic visions in new directions in a range of media. Recently, Chakaia Booker visited for an extended residency to realize a new collage project utilizing Flying Horse's master technicians. Booker is well known for her monumental sculpture made from repurposed tires — as well as for the wearable sculpture she always works in.

FLORIDA PRIZE IN CONTEMPORARY ART 2016

MAY 14 - AUGUST 7 • ORLANDO MUSEUM OF ART

The Florida Prize in Contemporary Art is an Orlando Museum of Art initiative that brings a new level of recognition to the state's most progressive artists. Now in its third year, the 2016 exhibition will present 10 outstanding artists, with one selected to receive the prize. These artists work in a range of media and artistic practices, often in new and unexpected ways. The challenging nature of their work will offer museum visitors insight into the complex and exciting world of contemporary art in Florida.

This year's artists include Anthea Behm, Gainesville; Adler Guerrier, Miami; María Martínez-Cañas, Miami; Noelle Mason, Tampa; Ernesto Oroza, Aventura; Matthew Roberts, Deland; Dawn Roe, Winter Park; Kyle Trowbridge, Coral Gables; Michael Vasquez, Miami; and Sergio Vega, Gainesville.

Technology and human geography are among the recurring themes examined by a number of this year's artists. Some examples include mobile applications used by Matthew Roberts to create augmented reality experiences dependent on user location, tapestries by Noelle Mason that reproduce satellite images along the U.S.-Mexico border where human smuggling occurs, and video by Sergio Vega that explores an early Spanish-colonial author's theory that the Garden of Eden was located deep in the Amazon River basin. These and many other works reflect the diversity of ideas and concerns that are brought together in the Orlando Museum of Art Florida Prize in Contemporary Art.
